

Arsenic & Old Lace

Cast List

Congratulations to you all for taking the first step in this wild process and showing an interest in the show and theater itself. As per usual none of you made this very easy and to those who did not appear on this list I encourage you to continue to pursue theater and to continue to audition for shows at bearstage in the future. Thank you for committing your time and efforts to this production. I can't wait to work with you all.

Rehearsals will begin monday of next week and our stage manager will shortly have created a remind to get that information to you all. The schedule will be updated on the Google Calendar at bearstage.org >> Callboard.
