

The Lion, the Witch, & the Wardrobe

to perform: December 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12 (matinees December 5 & 12)

PLEASE READ!

Bears,

Thank you so much to all who auditioned for Bear Stage's production of The Lion, the Witch & the Wardrobe. You all had wonderful auditions and some exceptional callbacks and did not make this an easy decision for the audition panel (and especially myself)! I am working diligently to honor the world of the source text.

Most importantly, I am proud of everyone's auditions. Auditioning for a production is very brave, and I want you to be just as proud of yourself! Many of you made creative choices and I am impressed by your growth and boldness during callbacks.

I desperately want to cast everyone who auditioned, however t
You see, casting a show is not about who is the most talented or the most experienced (and there certainly was plenty of that). Remember, casting a show is by no means personal—this is why we use anonymous numbers and not your names. It's about who is the best choice for these specific parts, with these other cast members, at this specific time. It's like putting together a very complex puzzle. For this show, choices really came down to the interactions and feedback between actors and physical choices made within the given circumstances of the text.

For those of you who got a part, congratulations! You've got a lot of hard work ahead of you!

To those who did not, I am so sorry. Please know that I care about you and did everything possible to be fair and objective in this process. You have no idea how difficult these decisions were.
